

JANUARY 22

“IF HE FORGAVE YOU,
YOU ARE FORGIVEN.
QUIT BRINGING IT UP!”

READ

Hebrews 6:19-20

The hope we have is an anchor for the soul. No matter how the winds blow, if He has anchored your soul in His Word, you have gone beyond the veil, and into His very presence. Don't spend so much energy trying to prove the existence of God that you fail to enjoy the presence of God, where there is peace and rest. We often think we are honoring God by the things we refrain from doing. If we're spending our lives running from something, we're not living life to the fullest. Instead of enjoying Jesus, we worry that we've said or done something wrong; that we're paying the price for something. That is not the kind of God who saved you. If He forgave you, you are forgiven. Quit bringing it up! Enjoy right now. You are not living on probation. Don't waste a moment. Nothing can separate you from God. In His presence is fullness of joy.

PRAY

Precious Jesus, praise You that You are the anchor for my soul and my access to God. The winds of the world are blowing stronger than ever, but I am safe and secure in You. I enter the Most Holy Place today by Your blood and find grace, mercy and joy.

From August 26, 2012