

MAY 3

“IF YOU’RE FEELING WEAK ... THIS IS FOR YOU.”

READ

Acts 2:1-18

The baptism of the Holy Spirit wasn't just an event to inaugurate the church; it was a poured-out blessing. Jesus Himself received this Promise from the Father and poured it out to the church, so we might continue doing what He was doing. One of the last things He said to His followers before He was taken up to heaven was to wait in Jerusalem for the Promise of the Holy Spirit. They were already gloriously saved. They had walked with Him. He told them He had more for them. They waited and prayed, and the Power came and filled the house where they were staying. There came a sound like a rushing wind, tongues of fire sat above them and they were filled with the Spirit, and spoke with other tongues the wonderful works of God, as the Spirit gave them utterance. This gift is for today. That day Peter preached, "The promise is to you and to your children, and to all who are far off." That's us. If you're feeling weak, like something is missing, like there's got to be more, this is for you. The Spirit will give you strength to be a bold witness. The Spirit will give you power in prayer that you've never experienced before. Cry out to Jesus today and say, "I want everything that You have for me."

PRAY

I need supernatural strength. I need Your Spirit and Your power! I want everything that You have for me. Fill me, Lord.

From February 16, 2003